MAFIA CRIMES:

DECEPTION
EXTORTION BLACKMAIL LARCENY
NARCOTICS
PROSTITUTION
TORTURE
RAPE MURDER

WHERE ARE THESE CRIMES COMMITTED?

Nicaragua, Guatemala, Honduras,
El Salvador, Costa Rica, Chile,
Dominican Republic, Haiti, USA,
Congo, Zaire, Angola, Zambia,
South-West Africa, Botswana, & Mozambique to name a few of the 50 + major operations in progress around the world. This is a 500% increase over the last year of the Carter Administration.
Since its inception in 1947, it is estimated that the CIA is responsible for over 5 million deaths.

WHY ARE THESE CRIMES BEING COMMITTED?

For profit! Unlike the CIA with its often vague and sometimes bizarre motives for criminal activity, the mob is at the very least, honest enough to admit that the almighty buck is its' driving force. These two forces of immorality do interact at times though, as when mob members were hired to kill Fidel Castro in the early '60s giving truth to the adage that birds of a feather flock together.

The American Indian Movement sees itself as a new warrior society for Indian people. There is a varying concept of warrior society. To white persons, the warrior is the armed forces. It's the guy that goes out there and fights and kills for his people. But Indian people have never had hired killers. Warrior society to them means the men and women of the nation who have dedicated themselves to give everything that they have to the people. A warrior should be the first one to go hungry or the last one to eat. He should be the first one to give away his moccasins and the last one to get new ones. That type of feeling among Indian people is what a warrior society is all about. He is ready to defend his family in time of war - to hold off any enemy, and is perfectly willing to sacrifice himself to the good of his tribe and his people. That's what a warrior society is to Indian people, and that's what we envision ourselves as, what we idealistically try to be. I'm not saying that we are all completely selfless or any kind of saints. But we try, with the spiritual direction of our holy men, to get ourselves to the point where we don't have the avarice and greed that is so much a part of Anglo society in the United States.

We believe that the power of this universe is held within our peace pipe. It is a pipe of peace, a pipe that at all costs tries to guide us in avoiding any deaths by our own hands, any violence on the part of the American Indian Movement. And if anyone will check back into the history of the American Indian Movement, though we take a very strong stand for our people, we've never killed anyone. We have never had violence unless violence was perpetrated on us first.

A Government Plan To Place Blacks In Concentration Camps

In a story published June 5 in the Miami Herald, North is named as the operative who revised contingency plans to "suspend the Constitution in the event of a national crisis such as nuclear war, violent and widespread internal dissent or national opposition to U.S. military invasion abroad."

As an official assigned to the Federal Emergency Agency (FEMA), North's assignment was to "collaborate" with FEMA's director, Louis O. Guiffrida, who the newspaper noted originally wrote a paper in which he advocated martial law in case of a national uprising by Black militants.

The plan advocates the roundup and transfer to assembly centers or relocation camps of at least 21 million "Americana Negroes." The report was revealed when a copy of the "secret assessment" was obtained by Arthur Liman, chief counsel to the Senate Iran-Contra Committee, according to the Herald. What Rep. Brooks touched on is a critical matter, not just for Blacks but for the entire U.S. population. It is a plan for an American junta, a group of military men who - without approval from elected officials - would take over the U.S. That was the only issue on which he came alive.

They control the television networks, the influential news agencies, and the major newspaper chains. They control nearly 40 percent of all the assets of private foundations and half of all private university endowments. They direct the nation's largest and best-known New York and Washington law firms as well as the nation's major civic and cultural organizations. They occupy key federal governmental positions in the executive, legislative, and judicial branches. And they occupy all the top command positions in the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines.

DUMP-CONSTITUTIONAL

September 17, 1987 marks the 200th anniversary of the United States' Constitution, our national writ of law. A lot of fuss is being made about this document this year complete with national(ist?) patriotic festivities and plenty of good ol' governmental propaganda. Have we forgotten that in 1787 our founding fathers excluded blacks, women, and Indians from supposedly guaranteed constitutional rights? Today, 200 years later, many people (the homeless, children, gays, immigrants...) do not have any more rights than they would if the constitution didn't exist.

That is the basic problem with governments and their laws. They only serve to protect the rich and powerful and plenty of good ol' governmental propaganda. Have we forgotten that in 1787 our founding fathers excluded blacks, women, and Indians from supposedly guaranteed constitutional rights? Today, 200 years later, many people (the homeless, children, gays, immigrants...) do not have any more rights than they would if the constitution didn't exist.

Now a rebellion in Massachusetts, led by a former captain in the Revolutionary Army, Daniel Shays, had fully revealed the deplorable weakness of the federal government.

Starting as protesters against the seizure of farms for debts, Shays and his disgruntled followers fueled discontent and fears of anarchy in Massachusetts. Similar groups gathered in New Hampshire, New York and Connecticut. Henry Knox, one of Washington's former generals, estimated the rebels could raise between 12,000 and 15,000 "desperate and unprincipled men." That was more men than Washington personally had commanded in the years of the Revolution!
