

Convulsions

Your selfish system
We have defied.
We see your oppression,
We see it from the
Other side.

We do our best to resist,
To keep ourselves from
Your corruption.
Your greed destroys,
Your actions ensure
Your own destruction.

See the swollen bellies.
Feel the children's pain.
While you stuff your face
You should not refrain
From feeling very guilty
And don't you lie.
Remember; the reason
For why they cry
Is because you waste
And overeat.
The taste of starvation
Isn't sweet.
