25¢

Hello and welcome to Labor Onio Vincit.
We are a fanzine put out by some local punks for all of you social deviants who want to have some fun. The issues will come out as often as we get the urge to write it. OK then, bye bye.

SPECIAL THANKS TO SCOTT JOHNSTON FROM ANTI-ANTI FOR THE COVER

Do's

1. A punk does just about anything he or she feels like doing.
2. A punk drinks just about anything available, but prefers beer.
3. A punk puts other people in their place — and is not particularly polite about it.
4. A punk dyes his or her hair. Red is the best dye because it resembles blood.
5. A punk wears T-shirts, black leather jackets, sneakers, and torn clothing. A female punk might check out a short, tight skirt with a rip up one side.
6. A punk knows how to say 'no' and says it quite frequently.
7. A punk hangs out wherever he isn't thrown out.
8. A punk knows how to pogo.
9. A punk puts on plenty of eye makeup for special punk occasions.
10. A punk prefers punk company.

Don'ts

1. A punk does not ask his mother for clean clothes or an allowance.
2. A punk does not take his little sister out.
3. A punk does not carry a comb or have much use for a toothbrush.
4. A punk does not ask who The Brats are.
5. A punk doesn't play the jukebox in a bar: he makes his own music.
6. A punk does not get pushed around: he does the pushing himself.
7. A punk does not "date"; he hangs around until the right chick happens by.
8. A punk doesn't call in sick—he crawls in sick, that is, if he has a job in the first place.
9. A punk does not buy records unless he plans to chuck them out the window.
10. A punk doesn't pretend he's having a good time: if he is, he groans loud.

 WASTED TALENT
 FINAL CONFLICT
 AMERICAN DREAM

This was the Last Show held AT The WETSPOT (Our Loss), Something about Ruin Losing their lease. Speaking of RUIN They were The FIRST BAND TO GO ON THAT NIGHT. There's nothing that I can say But They ARE Philly's Hottest BAND. The 2ND BAND UP WAS A LOCAL TRIO CALLED FINAL CONFLICT. This BAND blends FAST ROCK-N-ROLL with HARDCORE, like HENORIX MEETS The F.U.s.

NEXT UP WAS WASTED TALENT AN A BAND FROM STATE COLLEGE, WHO HAVE BEEN TOGETHER FOR MORE THAN A YEAR NOW. THEY WERE ACCEPTED BY THE CROWD SIMPLY FOR THE FACT THAT THEY ARE A GREAT BAND.

The 4TH BAND TO GO ON WAS SUPPOSED TO BE HEART ATTACK FROM N.Y. BUT THEY CANCELLED AND AMERICAN DREAM TOOK THEIR PLACE. BUT THEY TOO WERE MISSING. SO WHITE CROSS TOOK THE STAGE (WHAT STAGE?). AND TOOK IT WAS

EXACTLY WHAT THEY DID WITH NO COMPLAINTS FROM THE FANS. IF YOU SAW THEM WITH CRUCIFIX YOU'LL KNOW HOW GOOD THEY WERE AT THIS SHOW. AMERICAN DREAM CAME ON LAST, BUT BY THIS TIME I REALLY DIDN'T FEEL LIKE HEARING ANYMORE BANDS. THANKS TO RUIN & THE B.Y.O. FOR ANOTHER GREAT SHOW.

DOUBLE YOUR PLEASURE
DOUBLE YOUR FUN!

CLIFF HANGER OF FREEZE.

I'll have to reach far back into my memory banks to remember this show but it was great enough to review even 3 months after it happened. OK, here go's. Fear Of God were up first and despite their lead singers comments were musically impressive. Enough Said. Informed Sources came on next and proved to everyone that it doesn't have to be fast to be good. But they weren't just good, they were unbelievable! When they finished their set I heard more than one person asking for "just one more". Yeah, call them softcore, mediocore, or hardcore, but whatever you call them they still are great.

H2LOKEMUD 300&C4K4

Freeze too, are unbelievable. From the first song to the last they had the crowd slamming and singing. One of my favorite tunes they did was their great version of Boston not L.A. when they changed the chorus to Philly not L.A.

FREEZE

All in all it was a super show at a great hall. The videos shown between bands were also really great and I thank whoever was responsible for showing them. OK then I hope this brought back your good memories of this show.

RUIN

YES, This is Ruin. The Original line-up formed around a year ago and the current line-up has been together since Jan. 83. The Current Line-up now includes Vosco on Vocals, from Sensory Fix and Physical Push fame. If you haven't yet, go see them live. Their music is kind-of hard to explain but it's like Experimental hardcore/Rock with a vicious Kick thrown in. For more info. on Ruin Go Get Counter Attacks 2nd issue which has a great interview with Ruin.

 MURPHEYS LAW

SIX BANDS FOR FIVE BUCKS. ALL THE BANDS WERE GREAT. NO HASSLES FROM COPS OR REDNECKS. THIS CLUB RULES! LOTS OF COOL NY PUNKS CAME DOWN AND THE RAIN STOPPED IN TIME SO WE COULD ALL HANG OUT. FANG AND FLIPPER CAME TO PLAY MAKING IT EIGHT BANDS FOR FIVE DOLLARS. THE GAURDIAN ANGELS STAYED HOME THIS TIME AND LEFT US FLIPPER FANS ALONE. GOD, WHAT A GREAT NIGHT!

FWS-NEWS-and PREACHING THE BLUES

K, lets start out with veiws on local fanzines. Counter Attacks second issue came out and it is really quite an improvement over their first issue. It features great interveiws with TSOL, White Cross, Ruin, Wasted Talent, and Hüsker Dü. can you believe it, all in one 'zine! Plus articles, and lots of record reviews, they lowered their price to 50¢ which is ok by me. So send 50¢ plus some postage $ to COUNTER ATTACK 3201 Belgreen Rd. Phila PA 19154.

UP-ROAR! The first issue of this cool fanzine is free and can be picked up at your basic punk stores in center city. Its got real good articles on our local scene, wild clippings, and an OI! seek and find. No adress but pick it up around town, the cover rules!

OK now onto news about local bands. Zeke has left Flag Of Democracy and been replaced by Dave Rochan, former drummer of Blunder Boys. Now the Blunder Boys are looking for a drummer to replace him. The band that was never called the Mercenarys has broken up after playing at the Crucifix show. Social Parasites made their debut at the East Side Club opening for Ruin on March something. And now it's time to Preach The Blues. After two shows the BYO hall has been forever shut down. It's a real shame, just when things were looking up. Oh well, by the way the BYO is in no way responsible for this happening so dont try to blame them. So keep an eye out for shows at the Love Club.

Well, until next issue
Peace, Love, and Deterioration.
