Individualism

I know that you all are tired of having someone else's views on everything, but know that i am putting this out i'm someone else, so here goes. By main train of thought goes along the lines of Individualism. i used to be a strong anarchest, and such, but i soon realized that nothing short of a nuclear holocaust is going to convince those stupid gov't jerks that maybe us guys were right all along. they always put a new lock on the barn door after the horse has been stolen. well anyway, basically what i'm trying to say is that this world sucks and needs to be changed from the inside, and you can't do that if you're too busy worrying about the way you look, or what everyone else thinks of the way you look. be yourself, do what you want, rule your own world and the rest of it will fall in place.

RECORDS

double o:00 5 songs on 7 ins.
the guy at vinyl fetish turned me on to this band from dc. good fast sound. strong hevey metal influences.
no song sheet, so i dn't know waatthey're singing about. to much keyboards tho'.
(r&b records: po box 25054, wash dc 20007) adrenalin o.d.- "let's barbeque" 6sgs on 7 in the main complaint i have on this record is that it doesn't fit righton the spindle of my turntable. any way, great record, fast buzz [redacted] guitar, witty lyics, and a guy who can sing. a very worthwhile investment. favorite song is "trans am". (buy our records: 2374 steuben st. union nj 07083, $250 postpaid)

the dicks- "kill from the heart" 12 sgs on 12 ins.
first side is mediocre, second side is very weak. i missed them last week(i went to the seven eleven, so i thought i'd get the record, bad move. no energy, some talant, only high point is a cover of "puple haze" which isn't too bad.
(sst records: po box 1, lawndale, ca 90260)

f.u.'s- "kill for christ" 9 sgs on 12 ins.
go see these guys next week. if theyre anything like on the record, it should be a fantastic snow. nothing else to say, i love this record, but what does my opinion count? (robert h furapples 45 lydon way, dorchester, ma 02124)

i wanted to review the dri ep, but someone stole itthe other night. at the mdc show. oh well, life's a bitch.

MOOVIES

"monty pythons, the meaning of life" now, this review is coming from probably the most loyal monty python fan of all times. (about ten years now) and this is by far the best thing they have ever done, funny, gross, political, sickening, and anyother adj. you can think of to put in there, supererb.
"every sperm is sacred..."

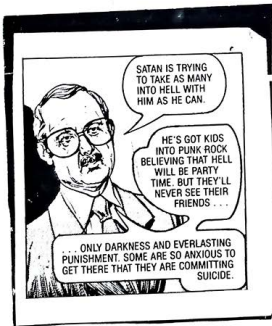

"smithereens"
not bad, main carecter, wren, doesn't seem to develop a real personality or reason for being like she is. why won't she go back to new jersey?
a good movie to see however, richard hell is very good.
