

BOUND AND GAGGED

A young man dressed in white takes your hand in the heat of the night he's in control he leads the way and in a flash he has nothing to say you say you're looking for someone
to help you dear
you look around this room
no one can help you here
you've been bound and gagged
oh well what a drag
you keep begging for the knife

asks for your hand in the heat of the night give him your hand he steals your life now your his slave
your his toy
your his ever loving wife
you look around this house
no one can help you here
oh well what a drag

A small child dressed in white a specter's tarry on an otherworldly night she is your past

you have no future
there's no use in getting up when your whole past just brings you down
you look around your life
oh well what a drag

ALONE FOR YOU

I was falling
and awoke from a dream
they're telling secrets but things are not what they ^{em} i'm not just running along w^{em} and my feet on the ground i my head in the clouds tripping over everything th^{em} gets in the way but never going down

far ahead of the game
i was reaching out for somet^{ing} but pulling away just the sa^{ng} the motion just pulls me alo^{ng} its like running backwards like falling up
tripping over everything th^{em} gets in our way and waiting and waiting and w^{ing} and waiting why don't you say
say when and i'll know say where and i'll go

say why and i don't know (alone for you)
and you're pulling away again

i was reaching out for something but pulling away just the same i was looking for someone to change my mind
i was looking for something i knew i'd never find
